The street is very quiet to-day, with rather a batter feeling growing up. The banks are accommodating their customers to the extent of their ability, and the anticipation that the forward movement of the crops will enable our merchants to sustain themselves has increased confidence in the future. In the discount houses there is rather more movement, and the rates for paper have a downward tendency, although the changes are not important. The best signatures are selling at 2 to 3 F cent per month. In the street the supply of money is rather increasing, but call loans are still difficult to make.

The Metropolitan Bank now takes the Thompson. Bass River and Rockland Banks on the same terms as other Eastern Banks.

The transactions of the Clearing-House to-day were $9,813,423.

The movement in Gold to-day has been small. The demand has fallen off, and is now almost entirely confined to the wants of other cities. The bullion brokers are buying at 1 2 2 4 cent, and selling at 1 2 1 4 cent. There are rumors that a considerable amount of bills are coming back by the Europa, including a line of the Bank of Pennsylvania on George Peabody & Co. The following table gives some of the leading figures of Imports and Exports for the fiscal year ending on the 30th of June, 1857;

The London correspondent of The Commercial says:

"The London money market has taken a very favorable turn. It has been seen for some weeks past that there was no prospect of a mitigation of the prevailing duliness, yet it was thought that, unless something very untoward should occur, it might remain for a long time without any adverse change. But the news of the continuance of the panic at New York, aggravated by the announcement of the sum which will be payable in discharge of insurance policies on the gold in the Central America, has established the probability that many weeks will elapse before specie remittances are resumed from your side; and as the coatinental demand is occasioning daily large withdrawals from the Bank, an early advance in the rate of discount from 5 to 6 vent is apprehended. The fact that the India House have just found it necessary to The London correspondent of The Commercial says: that the India House have just found it necessary to borrow a million sterling from the Bank, to provide for their engagements in this country, likewise strengthens the expectation that a return to a more strengthens the expectation that a return to a more stringent condition must be acticipated. In the general trade of the country there is nothing new. A few failures occasionally take place, but with the exception of those recently reported from Hull, none of them are of much importance. The latest is that of Messrs. J. & J. Bearo, a sitk house at Manchester, with Habilities count to $2.90 to $2.00.

In Philadelphia stocks of all descriptions are extremely dull. The money market presents a very cheerless aspect. Some of the banks are discounting to a limited extent, while others are doing nothing, except renewing an occsional note for those wao are on the brink of suspension. Capital is more abundant but the entire want of confidence checks business, and there is very little paper selling at any price, a few choice names only passing at 11 02 F cent per month. American gold 31 a 41 P cent, and New-York Exchange 21 231 + cent premium, and a fair business The Albany Journal offers the following sugges-

PAY UP THE GRAIN.—The backs in New-York owe the holders of their circulating notes. The city merchants owe the backs. The country merchants owe the city merchants. The farmers owe the country merchants. Neither at the Western end, nor in the middle, of this linked chain of debt, is there any money. So its continuity is unbroken.

The suspension of specie payment at the Eastern end of the chain has made its weight rest lightly all along its length. But there is a limit to this suspension. When this is reached, the banks will presuptorily say "pay up!" Their debtors will pass this PAY UP THE GRAIN .- The backs in New-York owe torily say "pay up!" Their debtors will peremptorily say "pay up!" Their debtors will pass this word of command to those who stand next to them in the long line of credit, and from these it will go among the wheat stacks, and finally reach the farmers. Their grain is literally golden. It will pay debts, and pass current in trade from Illinois to New York.

To the avient of the agricultural day, in the Black current in trade from Illinois to New York.

To the extent of the agricultural debt in the West, this grain should immediately be moved. It is superabundant. There exists no necessity for hoarding it as feod. As circulation, it is a duty to start it on its beneficent journey of debt-paying and the resurrection of business. If the sense of right does not bring to market this quantity of grain, justice should coerce its payment, and even the balances between the merchants of the Prairie States and their farmer customers. Tis Autumn. The hour is flying swirty toward us when the lakes, canals and rivers will be lecked against commerce. The Press should unite in a demand upon the indebted West to "pay up the grain."

It will relieve from bankruptcy, and may avert a famine.

A meeting of a portion of the stockholders of the Bank of Pennsylvania was held at the Exchange on Inesday, at which Moncure Robinson, esq., presided, but nothing of any importance transpired. A resolution was passed, requesting the call of a meeting of stockholders by the Board of Directors, at the earliest possible day, to which meeting they requested the Directors to report a statement of the assets and liabilities of the bank, giving a just view of its present condition. The meeting also expressed itself favorable to the election of John Welsh to the Presidency, as opposed to the resignation of the present Board of Directors, and in favor of filling such vacancies as may exist in the Board by the election of persons who, in addition to other qualifications, possess the recom-mendation of being large stockholders. The Executive Council of the Philadelphia Board of Trade have passed a resolution urging the banks to accept the law of the extra session of the Legislature. The same body, at the same time, passed the follow-

Resolved. That the section of the law requiring the banks to take in payment of debte the notes of other banks ought, in the opinion of this Board, to be extended so as to receive the notes of all solvent banks of this State on deposit, and pay them out as currency.

The Bank of Charleston, the Union Bank and the State Back have not suspended. The Camden Bank, too, holds out. The Charleston Mercury says: "As one of the many evidences of restored confi-dence, we would refer to the card, signed by many of our leading mercantile houses, offering to receive at parthe notes of Georgia and South Carolina banks.

parthe notes of Georgia and South Carolina banks.

The Chicago Press says:

"The present crisis, it may be said, has had no paralle' in the whole previous but iness history of the North-west, and certainly it is to be hoped that the nuture has no such fortune in store for us.

At Baltimore, exchange on the North is in demand at 6 a 7 V cent premium. On Philadelphia, 21 a 3 V cent premium. Gold is in request, and brokers are limited in the first tent for V cent premium. Virginia bank

Friday:
"The Directors of the new State Bank met yester-"The Directors of the new State Back met yester-day, to consult as to the course to be pursued in the present financial crisis. They were in session the bet-ter part of the day. What their determination was, or whether they came to any, we are not authoritative-ly advised, but we believe it is their purpose to 'hold up,' and continue as they have been going on."

delphia, offer to give notes at 6, 9 and 12 months in extension of their present obligations.

The coal trade has been very active down the Ohio

River. The number of persons who have found employment on the boats, during the present opportune rise of the river, is over two thousand, while the amount of coal carried off exceeds the shipments of any previous season.

The merchants and leading men of Newark have called a public meeting for Friday evening, to consider the financial emergency.

The Cumberland Civilian states that boats are arriving and departing very briskly on this thoroughfare. The recent rain raised the water to a sufficient height to let boats take on full loads. There is now no impediment to pavigation. The coal companies, however, have found it necessary to greatly reduce their business. It is their intertion to adopt for the present an exclusive cash system. Under the present embar-rassed condition of the finances of the country they find it necessary to do this or close their stores.

The Directors of the Massachusette Corporation have voted to stop their mills at Lowell. How long the mills will remain idle is unknown. Very little cotton is on hand, and no more is to be purchased at present.

The Philadelphia Bulletin sys:
A complaint brought against Win. Wainwright, esq., the late President of the Commercial Bank, charging him with perjury, after a full and patient hearing before Alderman Ogle was yesterday dismissed—a result that cannot fail to be very gratifying to Mr. Wainwright and his many friends. It is to be hyped that this will be the last attempt of the kind, when there is no better foundation for the complaint than there was in this case.

Mr. Joseph Brooks is the general agent of the Road in Boston, where it has two office—one at No. 85 Washington street and the ether at the steamboat effice on Central Wharf—and we understand the business of the route is large and increasing.

The monetary crisis in the United States has affected Halifax somewhat. Capital is in great demand there, and mercantile stock is pressed into market to raise more. Some parties there, as might be expected, take advantage of the existing state of affairs, and draw money from local institutions to use in speculation. Consequent on these and other movements, the banks greatly limit or stop discounting, and scarcity of money and difficulty accordingly is expenenced. nerced Basiness at whole sale being very light, resort has been had very generally to result sales at a reduction below wholesale prices for cash. Credits are now refused, and business is contracted to a cash basis. On these terms few goods are sold. At another nothing can be done. Large quantities of imported goods are being returned to Europe. The resort to renewals of notes and general extensions is become an epidemio. Transactions of this kind have taken place in private. Bank officers inform us that most of their bills receivable as they fail due are met by renewals and rediscounts, and could not otherwise be paid. There is a general disposition on the part of the creditors to, use their debtors, whom it is not their interest to let go down if possible. The quantity of goods on hand is very large, and unsaleable on the present terms. Some expectations are entertained that the domestic exchange will improve in time to somit of a late trade before the Winter sots in. We trust it may be so. The receipts of produce may improve so as to admit of a fair country trade; but we remark that the public stores of New-York and Broodlyn, which were full of cereals into the last year, are now comparatively empty. The stock of breadstuffs is not accommissing as usual for Winter consumption. Neither banks nor commission merobants can afford to make advances as they usually do on receipts of produce."

The same paper contains the following in relation to

The same paper contains the following in relation to the dry goods trade:

An adjourned meeting of the stock and bondhelders of the Eric Railroad was held last evening in Clinton Ball, Astor place; CHARLES A. DAVIS, esq , Chairman of the last meeting, presiding. The attendance was large.

Col. LATHERS called upon the gentlemen who took subscription books to report the result of their labors, apon their failing to do which, he commented upon their conduct severely.

The CHAIR made a brief address relative to the inportance of sustaining the Directors in the management of the road, and enabling them to save it from the bammer. If called upon to decide whether the Narrows, the Sound or Eric Railroad was of the greatest importance to the prosperity of New York, he should be induced to express his conviction in favor of the latter. He would, however, assure all, that un'ess they came up to the mark prompily the whole road wou'd be racrificed.

Mr. LATHERS followed with a succinct statement of the affairs with regard to its indebtedness, assets, earnings, &c., from which it appears that two years ago there were credited in the sinking fund $300,000, which had since been increased to $1,300,000, leaving the net income of earning account-stock-after paying interest and expenses during the two years, as represerted by assets, as follows:

Leng Dock One by agents. Propeliers on Lake Eric. Fee: Maternals in shop.	430,000 250,000 140,000 130,000 30,000
Total	1,900,000 800,000
Showing the earnings on account stock in two years. Having paid bonded interest, running expecses and floating debt.

Mr. LATHERS then stated that two suits had been commenced against the road which must be met within twenty days, otherwise the road would go into the hands of a receiver.

It was proposed to raise at least $2,000,000 for the purpose of paying off the floating debt of the Company, by getting the stockholders to advance ten per cent on their respective amounts, one-half at once, either in cash, coupons of the Company, notes forming the floating debts, and the balance any time within ten months from the 1st of December next. These differ ent propositions were made so as to suit parties who might be disposed to render assistance under any of

Mr J. D. Williamson was proud to announce that all the persons employed on the road, except those in the city, whom he had not consulted, had expressed their readiness to appropriate 50 per cent of their eartings, for two, three, four, five or even six months to come, towards relieving the Company from their present embarrassment, provided the employees in the city would do the same taing. As the representative of foreign stock and bond hond holders to a large amount, he was prepared to subscribe for an amount equal to what had been subscribed for by the Board of Directors ($120,000). If they would make up their subscription to $300,000 he would increase his subscription on behalf of the foreign holders to the same amount. (This announcement was received with enthusiastic applause.) The foreign holders, he said, were ready and willing to help those who are disposed to help themselves. to come, towards relieving the Company from their help themselves.

Mr. Moran, President of the Road, contended that the Directors had done all that could be expected of them; that the stockholders appeared to think and act as though they could have the Directors to struggle along asone: but he would have them all understand that unless they came forward and subscribed the re-quired amount within eighteen days, they must take the consequences.

Mr. Williamson expressed his confidence in the capability of the road being made to pay 12 per cent on an investment of even $40,000,000. He had spent much time in an examination of the road, and knew that it was in a condition to do all that had been represented of it. resented of it.
Mr. THEODORE Dr Hon stated that he represented about $120,000 worth of bonds, and was a large drediter, but for his part he was perfectly satisfied with the prospects of the road, for he considered it property more than any previous period, and felt confident that the fereign boncholders whom he represented would approve of acceeing to the proposition made by the Board. He was fully aware of the importance of the new long dock to the future prosperity of the road, for at present it had no terminus of its own at this end within twenty-four miles of the city; nevertheless he was decidedly opposed to the Company incarring a floating debt of such a magnitude by any Company when such a course may result in its ruin.

Effective speeches were likewise made by the Hon. S. B. RUGGLES, the Rev. A. MERMIN, HENAT ORBILLY, C. J. BROWN and others, which clicited marked applause, and on motion of Col. Latricus, a Committee of twenty were appointed, with power to add to their number, to collect subscriptions forthwith, going in pairs, not only to stockholders, but likewise any whom they could induce to subscribe.

The following named gentlemen volunteered their services: Theodore Deflow, the Rev. A. Merwin, Wm. D. Murphy, the Hon. S. B. Ruggles, Lriah Sauith D. A. Cushman, J. D. Williamson, O. S. Baker, Wm. Destrictowe, A. M. Cozzen, Wm. White, wright, jr., J. H. Goulier, Benj. Loder, Dr. Blakeries, Jeremiah Loder, Charles A. Pack, E. Buckhacdt, Charles A. Davis, Henry O'Reilley and C. J. Brower, While some of the speakers were addressing the meeting, to the amount of about five hundred thousening to the amount about $120,000 worth of bonds, and was a large dredi-meeting, the Committee succeeded in obtaining subecriptions to the amount of about five hundred thousand dollars, and from thd spirit and unanimity of feeling which prevailed in tayor of relieving the road from its present embarrassment ir is confidently believed that this third and last call will be a successful one. The meet ng adjourned at a late hour until Wedneday evening next, when the Committee, it is expected, will be prepared to report.
